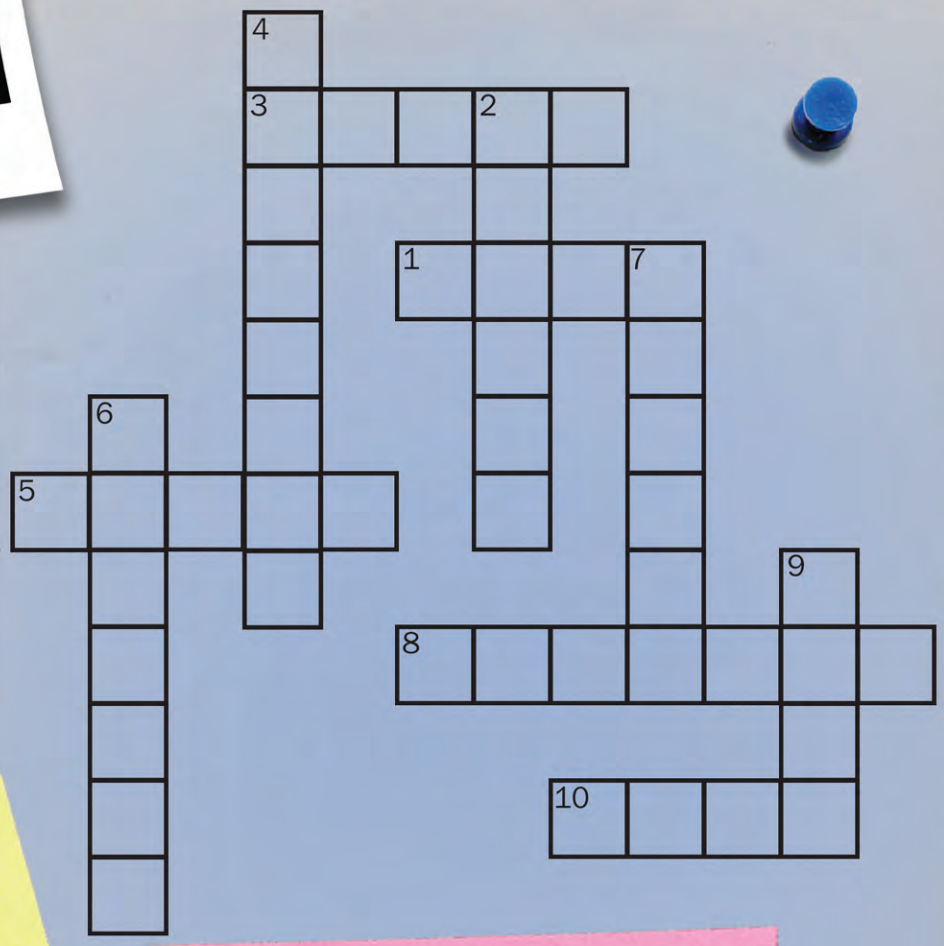
$aving for $omething $pecial

Going on a special trip or outing with your family is a fun way to spend time together and create memories. If your whole family pitches in to save up for something fun, like a baseball game or a trip to the zoo, you'll enjoy your time together even more! Complete this crossword puzzle to discover some fun, easy ways that you and your family can save up for an extra-special activity. Then talk to your parents about using some of these ideas to start saving!



ACROSS: 1. YARD 3. LUNCH 5. MOVIE 8. LIBRARY 10. BIKE
DOWN: 2. CHANGE 4. ELECTRIC 6. COUPONS 7. DINNER 9. FREE

Across:

1. Ask your parents to help you plan a ____ sale to sell things you no longer want.
3. Ask family members to pack a _____ from home at least once a week, instead of buying food at school or work.
5. Watch a _____ at home instead of going to the theater.
8. Check out books, CDs, movies, and magazines from your local _____ instead of buying them.
10. With your parents' permission, ride your ____ to a friend's house instead of asking Mom or Dad to drive you.

Down:

2. Save spare _____ in a large jar, and deposit the coins at the credit union when the jar becomes full.
4. Turn off lights and the TV when not in use to help save money on the _____ bill.
6. Help your parents cut out _____ before going to the grocery store.
7. Skip eating out at a restaurant and have a family _____ at home.
9. Look for ____ activities around your neighborhood to have fun on the weekends without spending money.