Fraud Alert: Watch Out for New Scams

Scammers are getting smarter, and more high-tech. Here are the top fraud threats you need to know about right now.

1. AI Impersonation and Deepfakes

Criminals are using artificial intelligence to mimic voices and create fake videos. In one recent case, a scammer used a deepfake of a soap opera star to trick a victim into sending over $400,000. If someone sends you a video or voice message asking for money, verify it through another method first.

2. Romance and Investment Scams (Pig Butchering)

Scammers build fake online relationships and slowly convince victims to “invest” in fake platforms, often involving crypto. These scams are highly emotional and costly.

3. Text Message Scams (Smishing)

Fake texts claiming your account is locked or that you’ve won a prize are on the rise. Don’t click links or share personal info via text.

Stay Safe:

- Don’t trust unfamiliar calls, texts, or videos.
- Enable two-factor authentication.
- Contact us directly if something feels off.

At Maine Highlands FCU, your security is our priority. When in doubt, call us at 207-924-5544 or 888-806-6920 or stop by the credit union. Our financial team is here for you.
